Parental Alienation kills

The examples mentioned here is taken from newspapers or other trusted publications.

PAS Children

Dana Baker was only 15 years old. She was in foster care with contact less than the “abuse level” between her and her parents.

On 3rd March 2011 Dana was found hanging from a tree. At 5.06pm, minutes before the act, Dana, called the social worker saying: "I just wanted to tell you that all I wanted was my family and you have taken that away from me. So I am calling to say goodbye. So goodbye."

Maria Kislo was only 12 years old. She was alienated from her father for several years. On the day of her father's death, her mother openly expressed her happiness about the death, in front of Maria. When Maria was found hanging, a note at her feet read “Dear Mom. Please don’t be sad. I just miss Daddy so much, I want to see him again.”

(This story was pulled out of proportion by the tabloids and people promoting alienation).

(If needed, another 40 cases can be mentioned)

PAS Adults

A child growing up alienated is still at risk as an adult. The deaths of PAS adults are not always suicide but includes other causes attributed to PA.

Very few people knows about these facts of a celebrity family:

Elaine had a daughter who was named Paula. Elaine decided to alienate Paula from her father, Jess.

Paula became an example of PA effects and outcomes. She married Bob, had children, separated and then she decided to alienate their daughter Peaches from him. Bob won in court and Peaches was placed in his care. It is alleged that Bob then alienated Peaches from Paula.

The end result: Alienated Paula became an adulterer, bearing an illegitimate child, and substance abuser.

Paula again became an alienating parent and subsequent “murderer by suicide” admitting in a police report that Michael, the father of her illegitimate child called Tiger, “couldn’t stand a minute more without his baby.” Paula died of a heroin overdose on 17 September 2000.

Peaches, initially alienated from Bob, then alienated from Paula, died on 7th

April 2014 of a heroin overdose.
